

2019 Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines

Featuring Updates on the Laws, SEC Regulations and Jurisprudence Affecting Corporations

FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 2024 * 1:30PM TO 5:00PM via ZOOM

The 2019 Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines that took effect on February 23, 2019 has tremendous impact on all corporations in the Philippines. This new legal framework introduces fresh concepts aligned with international best practices aimed at improving ease of doing business in the country. It will provide more protection to corporations and stockholders, and promote good corporate governance.

This three-hour webinar will comprehensively discuss not only the new law and its interpretation, but also updates on essential Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) issued regulations to brief you on what are still relevant or have become irrelevant, and recent jurisprudence affecting corporations.

As a member of the board and management, it your business to know the significant changes in the new law to help you in your compliance, in structuring your deals, and to avoid the legal pitfalls when making decisions during board and management meetings or when doing business and investing in the Philippines.
