

Best Practices Guide on Contract Law for Non-Lawyers

Avoiding the Pitfalls and Traps in Creating & Enforcing Agreements

TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25 & 26, 2024 * 1:30PM TO 5:00PM via Zoom

Life is a series of agreements. One of the most and useful life skills we all must have is understanding Contract law. Many people and their loved ones are duped, fooled, or taken advantaged by others in their business deals and personal transactions because of unfamiliarity on this very important subject matter. They become victims of a flawed, void, or voidable contracts that cannot be enforced. A defective contract is a bad contract.

The arsenal of knowledge you will learn in this special two-session webinar will prepare you in your career or your business for the rest of your life. This program is designed to update professionals, businessmen and non-lawyers about the fundamentals and sticky areas of Philippine law governing obligations and contracts.

Knowledge of the substance and form of agreements can prevent serious conflicts and business losses that can snowball into lawsuits, even violence. A legally enforceable contract binds the parties to their respective promises and signals the start of a smooth and continuous relationship for them. For trouble-free transactions, enroll in this program before you sign any contract!
